Choose a career that's right for you

The secret to having a fun and exciting career lies in matching your personality style to careers you'd love the most.

Suitability for a career is determined by a number of factors, including your personality style. If you choose a career based on your strengths and personality you will enjoy your job and be happier at work. When your strengths match the job it's a 'good fit'. Employers call these your employability or transferable skills.

In our research, we've found that people are most successful when they are in jobs that allow them to use their natural strengths. Knowing your personality style is one of the best ways of finding out what you are good at, and the careers that best match.

You are unique

Each of us has great potential, and each personality style has its own unique strengths and weaknesses. You have your individual talents; what you're good at; how you like to do things and what you enjoy most. These can be different from your family and friends and that's what makes you unique.

We all have different strengths and being clear on those strengths can help you to decide what you want to do at school, college or university. Knowing your strengths can help you choose a career and even how you spend your spare time. But that's not all. When you use your strengths, you start to build your self-esteem. This is because using your strengths gives you a feeling of positive energy and gives you the confidence that you are doing something well.

Helping you take the next step

Your Career Match report lists a number of career choices that match the talents you have. Each career is linked to job information for you to research the job. We don't expect that you will be attracted to all of these. Select from the list the ones you find interesting and do your research to find out more about them.

Regardless of the career you choose, you will need to have the skills and qualifications to get a job. This means higher education and skills and/or apprenticeship training.

Four personality styles

MyCareerMatch uses four style identifiers, (D) DRIVER, (P) PROMOTER, (S) SUPPORTER and (A) ANALYSER. When blended together in varying percentages, these four personality styles make us who we are.

Driver

Drivers are Adventurers - strong willed, practical and decisive. They are action oriented and results driven. Drivers like to lead and win every challenge.

Promoter

Promoters are Socialisers – outgoing, fun and charming. They are great communicators who inspire others with their imagination.

Supporter

Supporters are Helpers – kind, dependable, and practical. They are easy to get along with and enjoy helping people.

Analyser

Analysers are Thinkers – great with facts and numbers. They are well-organised, strive for accuracy and like to pay attention to details.

Congratulations you are a

Dominant Style

Driver

Backup Style

Analyser

There is no right or wrong style, and one style is not better than another. The way you like to do things may not be the same as others. This doesn't make them better or worse, just different.

Life and careers are all about relationships. How you get along with your friends, partners and the people you work with will determine how well you do.

All styles can succeed or fail. What's important is what you do with your talents and the skills and education you receive.

Your personality graph

People are a blend of all four styles and each style has its own level of strength. This graph indicates how strongly each style influences your personality. The highest is your Dominant style. This is the one that governs how you behave most of the time.

The second highest is your Backup style. It's like your co-pilot and kicks in when there's a need for balance and sound decision making. When styles are of equal percentage the order to determine your style is D, P, S then A.

Profile: DRIVER ANALYSER

Your Driver Analyser style

Driver Analysers are determined people who have great confidence, are not easily side tracked and can't be pushed into doing something they don't want to do. This can make you very stubborn but also very determined. You say exactly what you think and sometimes this will upset others but you don't mind because you are a direct straight forward person who once having set your mind on something just goes after it.

You feel that you can manage things on your own if you have to and you are confident when making decisions. You are prepared to take calculated risks and give it a go. You have the confidence to take charge and you are not afraid to tackle new situations. You are a great problem solver and have the ability to carefully consider and weigh up your options. You love a challenge and being the winner is always your goal. You don't get too emotional and prefer to deal with facts and figures than with people. You're not unsocial but you don't have to have people around you all the time.

You are a creative thinker and something of an inventor. Your talent to think things through helps to drive your adventurer spirit. It also allows you to come up with new ideas that you try out. You persist with something until you become expert at it.

Words that describe you

Inventive, creative, demanding, assertive, forward thinking, forceful, reserved, thoughtful, logical, active, alert, tangible results, direct, self-starter, systematic, precise, accurate and perfectionist.

Your work-related strengths

- Aptitude for working alone or alongside others you respect
- Ability to stay calm and cool in a crisis when under pressure
- Ability to recognise what needs doing and what is necessary to complete the job
- Aptitude for working with your hands and with tools
- Ability to adapt well to sudden change and shift gears quickly
- Practicality and commonsense
- Ability to identify and make good use of available resources

The qualities you bring to a job

- You accept challenges
- You value time
- You adhere to procedures and policies
- You get results
- You make decisions
- You solve problems
- You focus on detail
- You bring reality to the situation
- You enjoy working to guidelines

Your ideal job environment

Driver Analysers are best where:

- There is freedom from control and supervision
- There are challenges and rewards
- Tasks can be broken down into measurable components
- Relationships skills are not required
- There is an opportunity to delegate and manage
- They can make decisions
- Technical, task-oriented work is required

- You have high standards
- You always try to do your best work
- You like things to be organised
- You do things in a logical way
- You like to think about things and then decide
- You are a trustworthy person

How you make a difference

You make a difference by “being yourself”. Being yourself means using your strengths and the things you’re good at. But being yourself is not enough. You also need to have skills and qualifications so that you can use your personal strengths to be the best you can.

People with a DRIVER ANALYSER style similar to yours make a difference by:

Taking Charge

Your leadership skills compel you to take charge and be in control. You make a difference when it’s needed to turn a business around or solve a problem because you are willing to back yourself. Your self-confidence and leadership qualities encourage others to follow and support you.

Setting High Standards

Your natural instincts to win mean that you set high standards for yourself and others. You make a difference by encouraging others to be the best they can be and not to expect anything less than success. You respect loyalty and hard work.

Accepting Challenges

You enjoy a challenge that uses your ability to think outside the box, be innovative and take action. You make a difference by encouraging others to get on with it, take calculated risks and challenge themselves.

Being A Creative Thinker

You make a difference by being a visionary, a “future oriented” person who doesn’t look back. You are good at developing plans, schemes and concepts, sometimes the bigger the better. Nothing is impossible. You use a logical approach to design and innovation.

Meeting Deadlines

You are realistic and strive for results such as getting things done on time, or saving money or figuring out how to be more productive. You want to see tasks completed efficiently. You make a difference by ensuring that things are done correctly and deadlines are met.

Solving Problems

You are a natural and gifted problem solver. You make a difference by being able to get to the core of a problem and provide solutions that work. You see the problem as a challenge rather than a setback, and this gives you the clarity to see through it.

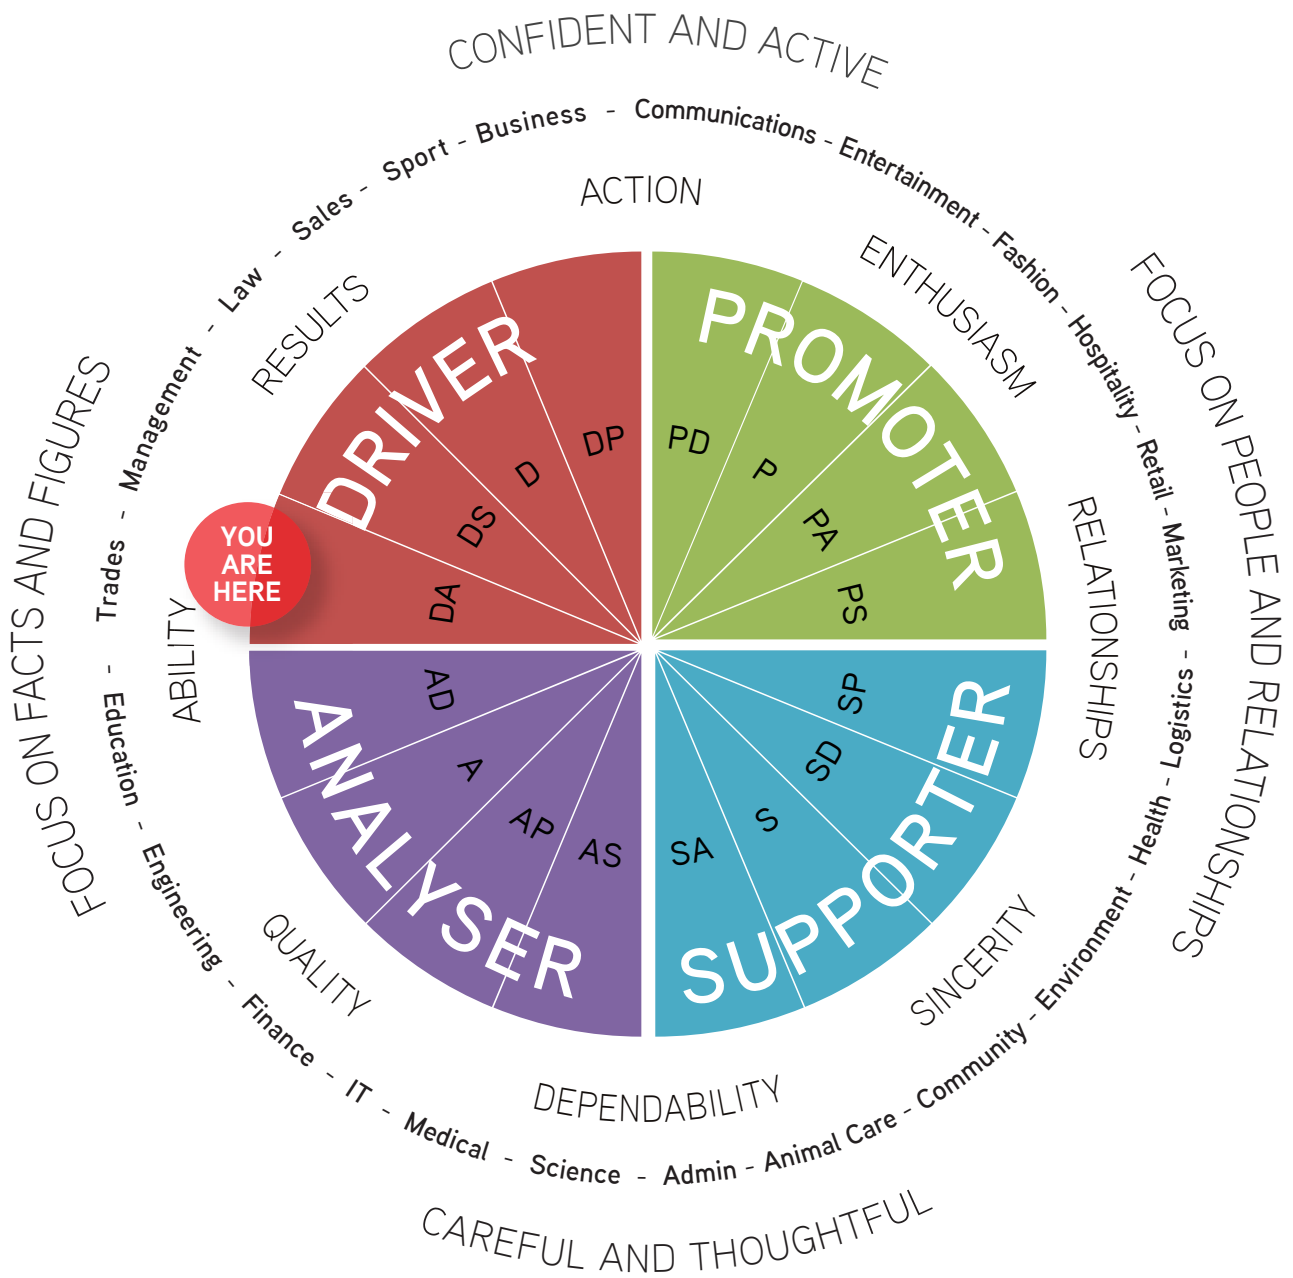

Big Picture Person

You prefer to work with the big picture, the big idea, rather than get into details. You make a difference by your sensible approach to see how things connect. You see how everything relates and where problems may arise. This is why Drivers tend to be the entrepreneurs of society.

Respecting Rules

You respect authority and are willing to use your authority with a sense of fairness. You understand that rules are meant to be followed because they create order and a method by which things get done. You make a difference by sticking to procedures and systems.

Your career personality map

How to interpret your Career Personality Map

The Map is divided into the four MyCareerMatch styles, DRIVER | PROMOTER | SUPPORTER | ANALYSER | and combinations of each style (DA, DP, DS etc.). Your style is shown as 'YOU ARE HERE'. The outer circle represents 'what you focus on' and 'how you approach life'. A Driver focuses on facts and figures and is confident and active; a Supporter focuses on people and relationships and is careful and thoughtful. The middle circle shows examples of careers that match your strengths. The inner circle represents 'what's important to you' - for Drivers it's results and for Promoters it's enthusiasm.

Your strength can also be your weakness

You've figured out that some people are like you and others are not. People are different. This doesn't make them better or worse than you, just different. Some people like action movies and others like comedy. Personal preferences determine your choice of music, clothes, hairstyle and friends.

How well you get along with others is a major factor in how successful you will be in your job and in the relationship you have with friends, partners, parents and teachers.

We each have personality behaviours that make us good at what we do but there are also behaviours that can make us look bad, annoy other people or get us into trouble.

As a Driver personality you enjoy activity, challenges, competition and you like to be in charge. You are strong willed, determined, practical and decisive. These are great strengths to have. But your strengths can become your weakness if you over use them. For example; you are courageous but this can lead to being reckless, you are results oriented and this can lead to you being pushy and because you are a confident person people sometimes see this as being too cocky, and since you are direct and tell it as it is, you can be seen to be rude.

Generally the Driver weaknesses are getting angry to quickly, wanting to be the boss all the time, not caring about others and being impatient.

People will always admire and want the things that make you a Driver but be aware that there's an opposite side to your personality style that can annoy others.

Self-improvement tips for Driver dominant styles like yours

1. You can't always do it your way
2. What you say is as important as what you do
3. Slow down, relax and don't rush
4. Be patient with people you don't agree with. Others have great ideas so listen to what they have to say
5. Respect everyone, be polite and don't trash
6. Be prepared to change your mind when a better idea or suggestion is made
7. Be big enough to apologise and say sorry
8. Compliment others, say nice things and mean it!
9. Give control to others and trust them
10. Don't be too busy to spend time with friends and family

GRIT makes you successful

Regardless of your personality type, research shows that GRIT is a major factor in success and achievement. Hanging in there, finishing what you start, not giving up and setting goals make all the difference to who you will become. Grit is about not letting go no matter what. The amount of effort you are prepared to put determines if you finish high school, graduate or do well in your career. People who are hardworking and determined, do better than those who give up too soon.

So good luck and hang in there!
