

Introducing MyCareerMatch

Careers to match your strengths

MyCareerMatch helps students discover what they are good at and matches them to careers and jobs that need these skills.

MyCareerMatch online quiz takes 10 minutes. We ask a series of questions and our software analyses the answers and creates a personalised report for each student.

Reports are empowering, build confidence and self awareness inspiring young people to choose a career they will excel at.

Click image below to view MCM report

In collaboration with CSIRO

CSIRO digital careers

MYCAREER MATCH

in collaboration with CSIRO Digital Careers

Sam Simpson
Driver Analyst
11 October 2021, 12:54

Digital Careers Report

In collaboration with CSIRO, MyCareerMatch includes a matching technologies career profile to encourage students to consider a career in digital.

Click image above to view report

Education

Educational technologists work helping to computer or web-based technology to learning. There is high demand for instructional technologists who can "teach" teachers how to integrate technology into the classroom.

They may purchase, install, implement and troubleshoot all factors that affect the integration of technology. These roles such as instructional coordinators may also provide on-site education for teachers and administrators. Instructional coordinators monitor and teach teachers' experiences in the latest instructional methods.

LEARN MORE

Discover Jobs In Education

- 1 Educational Software Programmer
Programmers develop software used from preschool to university, as well as in home education software designed to enhance or replace specific aspects of skills. This usually involves mathematics. Educational software often a step-by-step of step-by-step, from reading games for children to step-by-step coding courses for college students.
- 2 Virtual Reality Designer
Users of the program require input from a lot of manual engagement. When users interact with an object, they learn and gain experience and skills, and they can use it to play with other people. Education software designers create educational experiences with technology, using virtual equipment and need to be creative.
- 3 Online Learning Specialist
Designers create content to include their classrooms, as well as learning the basics of their. Evaluation and design teams because of its unique ability. Learning specialists determine content and create a program that is best suited to their students and can be used in a variety of ways.
- 4 Media Specialist
Media specialists can't just work with books, they are frequently found in libraries, television studios, and other locations of media that provide education for their students. They do the heavy lifting, they create content, they create content, they create content and they create content. They create content and they create content.
- 5 Training Material Designer
Training material designers work to create effective and easy-to-use technological training programs for corporations and education programs. They try to make courses that are on an educational background and through knowledge of learning styles, methods with skill and practice knowledge to create learning programs for a wide range of abilities.
- 6 Educational Technologist
Educational technologists use educational methods, technology processes and tools, instructional strategies, theories, and, and implement a variety of educational technologies in a school or classroom. They use theories in the use of their tools and how to integrate them to their advantage that provide better results.
- 7 Course Designer
Course designers are responsible for the use of their experience to design with educational technology to create high-quality courses on technology platforms. A course designer is a teacher with a passion for their subject and a passion for their subject. Course designers use their educational software game computers.
- 8 Learning Lab Coordinator
Learning Lab Coordinators are responsible for the use of their experience to design with educational technology to create high-quality courses on technology platforms. A course designer is a teacher with a passion for their subject and a passion for their subject. Course designers use their educational software game computers.

FIND A COURSE IN EDUCATION UNIVERSITY VOCATIONAL

Sam Simpson
Driver Analyst 11 Copyright MyProfile Pty Ltd

Data Analyst

These professionals develop insight and gain information through the collection, analysis and interpretation of data. They work for businesses and other types of organizations, identifying and helping to solve problems. As a data analyst, you'll use programming and computer software skills to complete statistical analysis of data.

If you want to start a career as a data analyst, learn some programming languages and get a bachelor's degree in Information Technology and Data Analysis.

LEARN MORE

Discover Jobs In Data Analyst

- 1 Business Intelligence Analyst
Business intelligence analysts gather the data through various sources. They're often a company's critical data analysis software, which is used to analyze the company's data. They're often a company's critical data analysis software, which is used to analyze the company's data.
- 2 Business Intelligence Architect
Business intelligence architects (BIA) are responsible for the design and implementation of business intelligence systems. They work with data analysts to design and implement business intelligence systems.
- 3 Big Data Programmer
Big data programmers are responsible for the design and implementation of big data systems. They work with data analysts to design and implement big data systems.
- 4 Data Analyst
Data analysts are responsible for the collection, analysis and interpretation of data. They work for businesses and other types of organizations, identifying and helping to solve problems.
- 5 Behaviour Prediction Analyst
Behaviour prediction analysts are responsible for the design and implementation of behaviour prediction systems. They work with data analysts to design and implement behaviour prediction systems.
- 6 Data Engineer
Data engineers are responsible for the design and implementation of data engineering systems. They work with data analysts to design and implement data engineering systems.
- 7 Data Scientist
Data scientists are responsible for the design and implementation of data science systems. They work with data analysts to design and implement data science systems.
- 8 Tableau Analyst
Tableau analysts are responsible for the design and implementation of Tableau systems. They work with data analysts to design and implement Tableau systems.

FIND A COURSE IN DATA ANALYST UNIVERSITY VOCATIONAL

Sam Simpson
Driver Analyst 11 Copyright MyProfile Pty Ltd

Resources to support your lessons

Click images to view reports

Resume Report

MyResume is packed with tips and valuable advice on what to add to a resume to make it stand out and get noticed. Includes access to hundreds of templates and an online resume builder.

Parent Guide

Guides help Parents, Teachers and Counsellors improve relationships with the child. By understanding their personality you can motivate, encourage and positively engage with them.

Study Tips

Study Tips helps you understand how your personality impacts the way you like to learn. Maximise your strengths and minimise your weaknesses to be the best you can be.

Class Workbook

Student workbook is the follow up exercise program for students after they've received their Career Profile report. Students are encouraged to further explore their strengths and career options.

About MCM

Download this PowerPoint presentation to help pupils understand different personalities styles in TV, movies and books. Includes instructions.

Blast OFF

Blast OFF is a work ready program. Students complete at their own pace and there's a short test based on what they've learnt.

MyCareerMatch School Package

The MyCareerMatch program for Year 9 - 12 comprises six reports, guides and resources.

1. Career Profile - matching hundreds of careers to each student's personal strengths
2. Class Workbook - follow up exercises
3. Resume Guide - packed full of tips to write a great resume plus an online resume builder
4. Home Study Tips - study improvement guide for each student
5. Parent Teacher Counsellor Guide - motivate and encourage each child based on their personality
6. MyDigitalCareer - discover technology careers

Students can download their Career Profile report immediately after completing the questionnaire. It appears on the screen as a download link and can save to their device. The Career Profile report together with other reports is emailed to the student and copy cc'd to you. Students select the reports they wish to access and download.

Hello Sam

Congratulations on completing MyCareerMatch.

Step1. If you have not already done so, choose and click the link to download your preferred report. To Save your report after downloading, select File then Save As and choose your Folder.

CAREER PROFILE

Are you interested in a technology career? Discover the digital careers right for you.

DIGITAL CAREERS

Step2. To assist you in your home studies, we have prepared a Study Guide for you to download. It contains helpful information to improve your study habits at home.

HOME STUDY GUIDE

Step3. To help you better understand your Report and Study Guide, we recommend downloading and completing the Student Workbook.

STUDENT WORKBOOK

Step4. And finally, to guide you through the process of writing your resume.

RESUME REPORT

Kind regards,
The team at MyCareerMatch

MyCareerMatch - Myprofile Pty Ltd MyCareerMatch

Contact MyCareerMatch

www.mycareermatch.com.au

CEO: Nathan Chanesman

nathan@mycareermatch.com.au

Client Services Director: Michelle Chanesman

mish@mycareermatch.com.au